America Wins First Skirmish With the League

MANDATE DISPUTES LEFT TO NATIONS TO END THEMSELVES; VICTORY FOR U. S.

Note Tantamount to Admission of Justice of the American Claims

LEAGUE WITHDRAWS FROM THE ARGUMENTS

Mesopotamian and Yap Controversy Will Be Settled by Individual Nations

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, June 18.—The United States government has won its first skirmish with the League of Nations.

This was the interpretation placed in official quarters here today on the action of the League council in Geneva in requesting each of the great powers to seek individual adjustment of the mandate questions and not relying on the League to smooth away the discord.

Copies of the note transmitted from Geneva reached the state department this morning. While the note did not say so specifically, it nevertheless was tantamount to an admission of the justice of the American position as outlined by Secretary of State Hughes in his notes relating to mandates.

Secretary Hughes challenged and denied the right of the League of Nations to decide arbitrarily questions in which this country had an interest. The result of the League action will be that the Yap question will be worked out between the United States and Japan and the Mesopotamian question will be adjusted by the United States and Great Britain on the one hand and France on the other. The League will have little or nothing to do with either matter except possibly to ratify the adjustment.

American Legion Loses to Athens

The American Legion was defeated by Athens, yesterday afternoon 5 to 4 in a very close game. The score was tied twice, Athens winning in the eighth inning. Athens hopped away to a three run lead in the first, but Mainard's pinch blow in the second sent two runs across for the Legion. The Legionnaires finally tied it up and then forged ahead, but Athens kept plugging and tied it once more, 4 to 4.

Whitt, late of Columbia, twirled for the Athenians and was in good form, striking out 12 men. The big left-hander worked a fast ball well. The fielding of Jones, at short for the Legion, was a feature.

The same teams are scheduled to fight another battle in Athens next Friday.

Batteries of yesterday's game were for Athens: Whitt and Yarbrough; for the Legion Bloodworth and Steadman.

Shrine Special Will Pass Here

The Shrine special, bringing returning Shriner from the big meeting in Des Moines, will pass through here between 5 and 6 o'clock this afternoon as it is announced by railroad officials today.

Whitt Seay Put In Decatur Jail

The Decatur city jail entertained a noted prisoner for a short time Friday afternoon when Whitt Seay, convicted at Florence for the murder of his wife, was held in the jail awaiting the afternoon train upon which he was taken to Birmingham.

Commission Declines to Close on Sunday at Capital Without Vote

(Montgomery Bureau Albany-Decatur Daily.)

MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 18.—The city commission of Montgomery refused to agree to close the moving picture shows and swimming pools on Sunday without a favorable vote of the people in a referendum election and declined to act favorably on the request of the five hundred persons who signed cards calling for better observance of the Sabbath.

A delegation composed of about three hundred and fifty citizens of Montgomery and led by Rev. Bob Jones who has been conducting a revival here for almost a month, presented the cards to the commission, announced that a majority of the voters had requested the closing of the picture shows and pools on Sunday and requested that this expression be accepted as a vote of a majority of the people. W. A. Gunter, Jr., mayor, declared that he would not be willing to order the picture shows and swimming pools closed until a majority of the people had so voted in a referendum election. He was supported in this declaration by J. H. Hardaway, associate commissioner.

DRIVE IS OPENED TO DEFEAT TOLL EXEMPTION PLAN

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, June 18.—A strongly organized and highly financed drive to defeat the Borah proposal for the free use of the Panama canal by American coastwise vessels is in full swing today. Members of congress are being deluged with carefully prepared propaganda intended to convince them that to repeal the tolls now levied upon American coastwise vessels passing through the canal would be unfair and unjust discrimination against railroads handling coastwise and transcontinental freight.

At a meeting of the Borah committee, Senator Knox, Republican, of Pennsylvania, one of its members, stated foreign interests, notably those of Great Britain, were not behind the strong opposition to the free use of the canal by American vessels. He blamed American interests.

Oil Can Still is Taken by Officers

(Montgomery Bureau Albany-Decatur Daily.)

MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 18.—Aslee Williams is in deep study now. She is debating the question of whether or not it pays to have a little oil can still in the home. Azlee had one, according to state constables, but it now reposes in the basement of the capitol and Azlee is charged with making liquor in violation of state laws. Agents of the state found the still in operation in Azlee's kitchen and obtained three quarts of liquor which was still warm, they claimed.

Azlee is a negro woman. She had obtained a copper worm which she has inserted in the spout of a five gallon oil can. The oil can was placed on her stove and the result was the running off of the beverage which comes from higher-priced stills.

Another oil can still was found in the same building and Belle Griffin, another negro woman was arrested on a charge of having a still in her possession.

Gun Clubs Plan Shoot on Fourth

Local gun clubs are making preparations for the greatest shoot in the history of the state, to be held here on the Fourth of July, it was stated today. The plans include a barbecue at noon.

Invitations have been extended to trap experts from many sections of Alabama, Tennessee and Mississippi.

MOSELEY RETURNS TO FORM, HOLDING MULES TO 5 BLOWS AND TWINS COP 5-2

Locals Continue to Maintain Grip on Leadership in A-T Loop

ERRORLESS SUPPORT IS GIVEN THE TWIRLER

McDuff Has Another Exceedingly Busy Day at Second Station

The Twins continued to maintain their grip upon the lead in the A-T pennant marthan by defeating Columbia yesterday 5 to 2, while the Triplets were defeating Russellville. As long as the local can win when the Tri-Cities cop, they have little to worry about and their lead of one and one half games looks mighty big now.

Moseley got back into form yesterday for the first time since his pitching finger was smashed by a batted ball in the initial game of the Sheffield series here two weeks ago. He allowed the heavy hitting Mules only 5 hits, struck out four men and allowed no bases on balls.

In addition to his splendid pitching, the Twins gave Mose air tight support, playing errorless ball behind him. McDuff continued his fancy fielding yesterday, handling seven chances without an error. Batters in the A-T loop seem to be hitting 'em late these days, as the right side of the diamond is the busy side in practically all of the late games. McDuff handled eleven chances without an error during one of the recent contests here.

The Twins return here Monday to open a series of six games with the Triplets. Three games will be played here Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Bachelor was scheduled to work.

Another True Bill in the Kaber Case

(International News Service)

CLEVELAND, O., June 18.—True bills were returned today by the Cuyahoga county grand jury, charging murder near Buffalo and held there pending extradition and Vittoria Tiffelli as the actual murders of Daniel F. Kaber, wealthy Lakewood publisher, with whose murder Kaber's widow, step-daughter, brother-in-law and one other woman already are charged.

Tiffelli who is still at large, is believed to be the man who actually stabbed Kaber to death.

Dollar Days Are Here Tuesday and Wednesday

Generous Man Sends Carrier to Ball Games

Newspaper carrier boys are accustomed to fault-finding patrons, because newspaper carrier service never was perfect, but there is a generous-hearted newspaper reader in Decatur who appreciates the prompt delivery of his paper each evening and as a result one of The Daily carriers will see three ball games here as the guest of the patron.

The following letter of appreciation was received in The Daily office this morning:

Decatur, Ala., June 17th, 1921.
Mr. W. R. Shelton,
Manager Albany-Decatur Daily,
Albany, Ala.
Dear Sir:—

Am not personally acquainted with the little boy who delivers The Albany-Decatur Daily, at 703 Oak street, but know that he is polite, accommodating, and often gets caught in the rain while trying to put his paper over on time.

He don't run his bicycle over the flowers, nor does he throw the paper upon the wet grass, but places it upon the porch where my sisters can always find it.

Please hand him the inclosed check. Tell him that all of us want him to get good seats in the grand stand, so he can enjoy the big ball games, July 4th, 5th and 6th.

He must root for his home team, but not to pull off two big a yell, until the Twin Cities have put the kibosh over Columbia's right eye, then he can let her go.

Yours truly,
A. C. BANKS.

GENERAL STRIKE IN GREAT BRITAIN AGAIN RUMORED

(International News Service)

LONDON, June 18.—The coal miners today began working for a general strike in Great Britain, involving all trade unions that now have disputes with the employers. The industrial crisis again has become acute and the press warns the country of the possibility of a complete tie up. Leaders of all unions now having disputes on hand are asked to meet the executive committee of the federation of miners in joint session. Upwards of 2,000,000 workers are involved at present in unsettled labor troubles. The expected settlement of the cotton textile troubles has met with a hitch. The spinners have declined to decide upon the proposed settlement until next Thursday, extending the idle-ness in the cotton mills at least another week.

A communication from Premier Lloyd George was read at the meeting of the executive committee. The Premier said the government is still striving for a solution to the trouble.

The British government's offer of a subsidy of 10,000,000 pounds sterling to assist the coal mining industry today was extended 24 hours to midnight Sunday. The offer was to be annulled if the miners voted to continue the national coal strike but the government decided to keep it alive in hope that the union could take some steps toward a settlement, despite the vote to reject the offer.

Fugitive Negro is Reported Killed

MEMPHIS, TENN., June 18.—Sherman Richmond, 45, fugitive negro who insulted a white girl and then eluded Shelby county officers for 30 hours, was reported killed in a telephone message Saturday noon from Constable E. W. Hubbard, Polla Station, Miss.

According to Hubbard the negro leaped from a train there early this morning, carrying a pistol and a rifle. Hubbard intercepted the negro and on him showing fight, the Mississippi officer killed him.

DEFENSE ALLOWED TO PLACE SEVERAL ON STAND IN TRIAL OF ACCUSED MINER

Courtesy is Given to Accommodate Several of the Defense's Witnesses

FORMER DEPUTY TELLS OF THE FATAL AFFRAY

John Brand May Seek to Prove An Alibi at Jasper, Ala.

JASPER, ALA., June 18.—The defense in the trial of John Brand, charged with the murder of Earl Edgill, took over the trial this morning upon courtesy, asked by the defense to accommodate several of their witnesses.

J. R. Morris, whose home is at Sylacauga, took the witness stand upon beginning of taking testimony. He stated that he was a deputy sheriff and present at the time of the shooting at Patton Junction, which resulted in the death of two and was the direct cause for national guardsmen being sent into the Alabama coal fields.

Morris gave a detailed account of the beginning of the affray. He said that he could not say positively who fired the first shot. He was in the rear of the 17 or more deputies, he said, who were going to the mine union hall.

Edgill had started toward the house when he fell, shot, Morris said.

John Brand has summoned a large number of witnesses who are to testify as to his good character. He will attempt to show that he was not present at the shooting and that he never carried a gun or even owned one. He has summoned farmers, ministers and many neighbors to testify as to his whereabouts at the time of the shooting and to his good character.

He will base his alibi, it was said, upon his being at a saw mill in search of work at the time of the shooting and did not know about it for several hours after it occurred.

Sylvester Lowery, negro miner, continued his testimony yesterday afternoon. He said he saw Brand shooting down the road toward where the deputies were. A. J. Hicks, a negro school teacher, also took the stand yesterday and said he could not identify any of those participating in the shooting, but said that it lasted 15 or 20 minutes.

The state this afternoon will complete its side of the litigation. The defense will consume three or four days at least it was said, in their presentation of evidence. The crowds about the courthouse are gradually increasing as the trial progresses, but no disorder is manifested.

Sylacauga Seeks Current From A. P.

(Montgomery Bureau Albany-Decatur Daily.)

MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 18.—Alleging that the Alabama Power Company had refused to sell to the city of Sylacauga electric energy at the wholesale rates given to other cities and had demanded that it be given a franchise to operate in Sylacauga without cost, the city of Sylacauga Friday requested the public service commission to issue an order requiring the power company to connect its lines with the electric wires of the Sylacauga municipality and to supply electric energy at reasonable rates.

The petition alleged that negotiations had been carried on with the company since the municipal plant was destroyed by fire in April but no agreement has been reached, and that temporary arrangements with the Alabama Power Company through the Avondale Mills would have been discontinued recently had not the city obtained a temporary injunction preventing it until the dispute could be adjusted.

SWEEEPING PROGRAM ADOPTED IN CAUCUS BY RAILROAD UNION DELEGATES IN MEET

Agree to Stand as One Unit Before Mind the Proposed Plan

THREATEN A FIGHT ON CONVENTION FLOOR

Again Expect to Have the Support of the Miners' Delegates

(International News Service)

DENVER, COL., June 18.—The most sweeping program ever yet proposed by organized labor, calling for government ownership and control of the steel industry, the coal mines and all other basic industries, is demanded by the railroad union.

Delegates of the railroad workers to the convention of the American Federation of Labor meeting in caucus took action, it was learned today, that binds them to stand as a unit behind a resolution applying the principle of government ownership and democratic control of all basic industries.

The railroad unions threaten a fight in the convention that will parallel last year's contest which resulted in an overwhelming victory for government ownership and democratic control of the railroads over the Gompers opposition. They again expect to have the support of the coal miners, who have already declared for nationalization of the coal mines.

Glenn E. Plumb, father of the Plumb plan, will arrive in Denver early next week to address the convention at its invitation.

Supporters of John L. Lewis are confidently predicting his election as president of the federation and the announcement of the retirement of Samuel E. Gompers, incumbent.

Big Judgment is Appealed to Court

(Montgomery Bureau Albany-Decatur Daily.)

MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 18.—The supreme court was called upon yesterday to determine whether or not the Alabama Power Company and Selma Lighting Company must pay Banks S. Talmadge of Selma $27,500, one of the largest judgments ever obtained in a damage suit in Alabama. A jury in the Dallas circuit court awarded Mr. Talmadge this amount for the death of his wife, Mrs. Pauline Talmadge, who was killed by the explosion of an instantaneous heater in her home.

Mr. Talmadge originally sued the two electric companies and the Reeves Electric and Plumbing Company, which installed the heater, but the jury rendered a verdict in favor of the latter company at the time it awarded the damages against the other companies.

45 Are Indicted in Bunko Probe

ATLANTA, Ga., June 18.—At the order of Judge J. D. Humphries, of the Supreme court, sealed indictments brought by the Fulton grand jury following the long and sensational bunko probe, were opened today disclosing bills against T. D. Shaw, lieutenant of detectives, charging larceny after trust; Detectives W. L. Payne and Paul V. West, bribery; John S. Highsmith, attorney, attempted bribery; Ernest C. Pool, misdemeanor and A. H. Martin, misdemeanor. Court officials stated that Martin is Al Martin, councilman from the second ward.

Forty-five indictments were returned.

NO LONGER A QUESTION FOR THE REST OF THE WORLD

The important thing about the German war debt, is that payments have been made on it. Just as a partial payment on a note, in common law, makes the whole note a legal obligation beyond question, so the partial payment of her indemnity makes Germany responsible in a new and binding sense. Her promises to pay made her responsible, but her actual payments bind her tighter than anything else could do. There are pessimistic economists or politicians as the case may be, who say, that Germany cannot pay the $56,000,000,000.00. But they are the same people who when the war closed, and Germany promised to pay what the Allies demanded declared that the sum total asked was "inhuman" and impossible of payment. In this connection, it is well to recall that before the war, the "authorities" said that a great war was impossible as it would destroy every thing. And especially it was declared that international finance could not stand the strain of a world war. But it did stand it, although the system was all but destroyed. With this in mind, it seems a bit premature to say that the Germans cannot pay the war debt.

In every human undertaking, the state of mind of the people at large, is the all important consideration. If German psychology is right—if the Germans believe in their hearts that they can pay their debts, they will doubtless do so. If Germany decides that the presence of a foreign army is preferable to paying up, she will doubtless decide that she cannot pay at all. But if the German people are a unit in their desire to clear their country of enemy troops, the huge indemnity will be paid. Very few things, if any, are impossible to members of the human race if the right kind of will power is on hand.

It is a measure to our dual, so close is man to deity when duty whispers low "thou must," there is always a popular acclaim—"We can!"

The moment Germany establishes the conviction among her neighbors, that she is making a sincere effort to pay, she will get much sympathy and help. No great people, like those of America, have ever desired to see Germany destroyed, or her people enslaved. We pledged our last dollar and last man, to prevent the enslavement of humanity—despite the opinion of one George Harvey to the contrary, and we will not look with unconcern, if it ever appears that there is an effort on foot to permanently enslave Germany.

Provided, of course, that nation does its best. America helps those who help themselves. But on the other hand if Germany acts in laggardly unworthy manner, in regard to her war debt, she will get cold comfort and no help from the United States. And as time passes, this same attitude will be taken by even, such a nation as France, that suffered so greatly during the war. None of the nations of Europe or of the world will put anything in the way, of Germany's emerging from the ruin of war, if that nation shows a disposition to act with energy and honor. It is idle for outsiders to speculate as to whether or not Germany can pay; the whole question of the war indemnity is squarely up to the German people themselves.

ALABAMA'S MINERAL WEALTH MAY HOLD BIG OPPORTUNITY

North Alabama's hills and mountains have already given up vast quantities of coal and iron, but the mineral richness of this state probably has not been more than scratched on the surface. That coal and iron abound is well known. They have made Alabama the greatest manufacturing state in the South and they are adding annually many millions to the wealth of the state, but Alabama has other mineral deposits that probably are of as great value as its vast iron deposits or rich veins of coal.

Over in Cleburne county in mica, valuable and eagerly sought. Its uses are numerous and its value is great. There has been some development of the deposits but their remoteness from a railroad has made it difficult to do any considerable development.

In Clay county are graphite deposits that should make that county wonderfully rich. The graphite deposits also are being developed, but it appears that the development is not extensive and that the true extent of the field never has been determined.

There doubtless are other valuable minerals in North Alabama's hills. Prospecting for mineral wealth never has been done except in a limited and spasmodic way. Hidden in the hills probably is wealth which Alabamians would find sources of great wealth if they could be located and developed.

That there is gold in this part of Alabama is beyond question. The only question is one of finding it in paying quantities. For many years gold nuggets have been found, washed evidently from a mother lode somewhere up in the hills. Once, some years ago, gold mining on an extensive scale was carried on for a time in Cleburne county, but it proved unprofitable. In Talladega county it also was believed there was gold, but it never was found in sufficient quantity to make mining of it pay.

Alabama may never rival the golden west in the production of yellow metal and there may never be a rush to the hills of Cleburne such as the one that drew thousands to Alaska, but Alabama can be made a great mineral field if the wealth of other metals than gold that now is hidden in its hills is sought and properly developed.

If there is graphite, mica, coal and iron in sufficient quantity and of good quality far from a railroad, corporations needing such products will build railroads to the mines. Such things have been done in the past and are being done today in many parts of the country. The greatest business the Southern Pacific Railway of Mexico has today is the hauling of copper from the great mines at Cananea, Mexico, and from the great smelter at that point. Cananea is one hundred miles away from the American border, but when copper was found there a man of vision, then interested capital in the project, had the mines worked, the smelter built, and the railroad came as a matter of course. And there was in a foreign and almost hostile country. How much more quickly would capital build a road to rich mineral deposits in Alabama.

One thing needed to develop mineral wealth is to have determination back of the effort. Once assured that mineral deposits exist, their development can be brought about by persistent and earnest effort.

Really Alabama's natural wealth never has been realized. Each year there is new evidence that this is a wonderfully rich state in minerals, and some day the true extent of its mineral wealth will be realized.—Anniston Star.

A TRAIN OF THOUGHTS FOR SABBATH AND OTHER DAYS

By J. E. Blair

The truth possessed some are the saved souls. And the Master says the burden of truth is light and its yoke easy. There are no persons on earth who are not interested in the truth, and who do not seek it to some extent, but there are at least three classes of truth seekers who never will let the truth possess them, and hence such will be lost. The first of these three classes of "seekers," has Roman Pilate at its head. He was a very direct seeker—a very bold one. Pilate had the face to direct his inquiry to Christ Himself. He asked the Son of God, boldly, "What is truth?" But before Christ could tell him that He was the Truth, Pilate had washed his hands and slunk away. Pilate did not really want to know. He was more interested in office, good food and a steady job. We have Pilate's type always with us. They are a cynical, unreliable set of fellows. They are apt to be saying something about "I must hold my job." And "every man has his price."

The second type is represented by Simon Magus, who wanted to pay St. Peter, to put him "next" on the mysteries of the Kingdom, so he could turn such knowledge to practical advantage. Such are not as bad as Pilate, and they are more intelligent. They are in a way "allies" of the church of God. They are the ones who help the church along, shrewdly realizing that the church will help them along. Such will play one church against another if such a game seems profitable to them. Peter said to Simon Magus: "Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter; for thy heart is not right in the sight of God." I would not advise any body to class up with Simon Magus. The third class, is represented by those Athenians who spent their whole time hearing and telling "the news." Those news mongers had no intention of applying, what they knew. They did not aim to apply the truth. They did not want "experimental religion," so of course never got it. Such take nothing from their reading. If they study economic questions, it is with no intention of seeking to improve economic conditions! This class are stand patters, yesterday, today and forever! Such will never run forward "to meet My Master" as Ella Wheeler Wilcox said she would. Such will never climb high enough, to see the Master, as did honest Zachaeus. Pilate was just a plain Pagan. Simon Magus was a "profiteer" in the truth. The Greeks just liked to gossip about the truth. Now great Abraham, belonged to the fourth estate—the happy estate—"And Abraham believed God and it was counted unto him for righteousness." Abraham was the friend of God. The friends of God will gladly accept His yoke of truth.

Amusement

"SCRATCH MY BACK" PRINCESS TODAY.

Val Romney's motto was "Obey That Impulse." In smart society from coast to coast and vice versa he was known as the man who always did what he wanted to. You will admit that this was a rather large order. To make things still harder, Val insisted on wanting to do the sort of things that mild-mannered people generally shun. For instance, when he rode in a street car one afternoon and encountered a longshoreman who weighed all of 250 pounds and who insisted upon occupying two and a half passengers' room, Val promptly dug him in the ribs with his cane to make him move over. As a result Val's left eye went into deep mourning for about a week, and he walked with a limp until some of the major bruises healed, but the principle was there, anyway, and besides it was a wonderful fight. It won't take much imagination to figure out that young Mr. Romney's adventures in doing-as-he-pleased would make a wonderful motion picture. Rupert Hughes, America's most popular novelist, wrote what we consider the most amusing screen comedy of the year, with the irrepressible Val as the hero. "Scratch My Back" is the title—and it's just as startling as it sounds. Smart, clean, fast, clever—and funny! It's here Saturday.

Hard work acts unfavorably on the body that is bilious or constipated; producing low spirits, weakness and loss of energy. Prickly Ash Bitters is the remedy that men use as a system cleanser and invigorator. It creates energy, good appetite and cheerfulness. Price $1.25 per bottle. Sold by all druggists.—Adv.

COTTON MARKET QUICKLY RECOVERS

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, June 18.—After opening 5 to 15 points lower, coverings and trade buying led to a quick recovery on the cotton market today. Wall street competed with other interests and replaced lines sold earlier in the week. The result was a sharp increase of about 18 points from initial levels, so that by 10:15 o'clock the undertone was quiet, firm with prices about 5 points over last night's close.

WEAK; RUN-DOWN

Carolina Lady Got So She Could Just Drag—"Cardui Built Me Up," She Declares.

Kernersville, N. C.—In an interesting statement regarding Cardui, the Woman's Tonic, Mrs. Wesley Mabe, of near here, recently said: "I have known Cardui for years, but never knew its worth until a year or so ago. I was in a weakened, run-down condition. I became drugged—didn't eat or sleep to do any good; couldn't do anything without a great effort. I tried different remedies and medicines, yet I continued to drag.

"I decided to give Cardui a trial, and found it was just what I really needed. It made me feel much stronger soon after I began to use it. I began to eat more, and the nervous weakness feeling began to leave. Soon I was sleeping good.

"Cardui built me up as no other tonic ever did.

"I used Cardui with one daughter who was puny, felt bad and tired out all the time. It brought her right out and soon she was as well as a girl could be. We think there is nothing like Cardui.

"Do not allow yourself to become weak and run-down from worry and troubles. Take Cardui. You may find it just what you really need. For more than 40 years it has been used by thousands and thousands, and found just as Mrs. Mabe describes.

At your druggist's. NO-142

If you cannot eat heartily without an attack of indigestion, your stomach is weak. You need Prickly Ash Bitters. It is a fine digestive tonic. Besides, it rids the stomach and bowels of the impurities which bring on sickness. Price $1.25 per bottle. Sold by all druggists.—Advt.

MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE SALE
State of Alabama Morgan County.
Under and by virtue of a mortgage executed to the undersigned O. G. Grayson by C. E. Frost and Belle F. Frost on February 4th, 1920, and recorded in the office of the Probate Judge of Morgan County, Alabama, in Mortgage Record Vol. 258, Page 25, conveying the property hereinafter described, for the payment of the principal sum of Fourteen Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($14,500.00); and such interest and attorney's fees as might accrue in the premises; and providing that all the installments of the mortgage indebtedness should at once become due and payable, and the mortgage subject to foreclosure in case default should be made in the payment of any of the notes secured by said mortgage, or any part thereof, or any interest thereon, at maturity, etc.;—I will proceed to sell at public outcry to the highest and best bidder for cash, at the court house door in Decatur, Morgan County, Alabama, on July 11th, 1921, within the hours of legal sale (the mortgagors having made default in the matter of paying a note for $5,000.00 which was secured by said mortgage, on to wit: February 3rd, 1921, and interest thereon, etc., etc.) for the amount of the entire mortgage debt, interest and attorney's fees, or so much thereof as the proceeds will suffice to pay, the following described real estate situated in the City of Decatur, Morgan County, Alabama, to wit:

Lots D and E in Block Three Hundred Twelve (312) of the Decatur Mineral & Land Company's Plat, in the city of Decatur, Morgan County, Alabama, together with all improvements thereon, or pertaining thereto. Opposite Government Building.
